

Eleven times you risked your life to give your children birth,
May those who live all honor you while they remain on earth.
You sure have earned a good reward for noble deeds done here,
And now you're mingling with the just in a high & holy sphere.
But I'm sure your thoughts will oft times turn to those you loved so well,
For whom you sacrificed so much, yea more than tongue can tell.
We know you can't come back to us but we will come to you,
To dwell with you eternally if we prove faithful too.
This thought brings comfort to my heart more than all else in life,
That I will yet in Heaven meet my Dear Beloved Wife.
